Ultimately, the doctor will decide if an individual is fit for treatment. After you qualify for treatment online, the doctor will go through a screening process at the facility. This screening process is based on results from an EKG, blood tests (for liver enzyme function), drug tests, and a series of questions about the individuals' health.

Transportation: Guests are picked up from San Diego International Airport and driven through the border into Mexico. Driver's license required to travel across the border, but not a passport.

Special Features:

- High Doctor to Patient Ratio. Experience Ibogaine is very cautious about not treating more than 2-3 people at the same time. However, there may be 5-6 people at the facility in different stages of treatment.
- The facility is in a safe, gated community overlooking the ocean. Patients have their own rooms in a comfortable private setting conducive to recovery.
- The facility provides a detoxifying sauna, health food, and mild physical exercise.

Provider states: "Experience Ibogaine successfully treats more individuals struggling with addiction than any other Ibogaine treatment center in the world."
